

A chart for counts conducted at 19th St. is shown below. In April, a high incidence of bus delays was noted, which now appears to be tapering off. The graph demonstrates that there has been a substantial decrease in the number of vehicles going through this area, perhaps due to summer vacations. Counts will continue to be conducted during the first full week of each month to determine whether bus delays can be predicted and what impact the hybrid vehicles will have.

